Skycourts towers are a complex of six residential towers with 21 floors, which offer thousands of apartments. Skycourts is a modern Dubai residence that's strategically located with easy RTA accessibility, including a route leading to the Dubai Mall Metro. The restaurant is convenient for anyone who lives in the complex, or works nearby in Dubailand. It offers great food and ambiance without compromising taste.

House of Kabila doesn't feel like just another restaurant. This is a deeply emotional journey. The founders Deepali Jain and Ashish Jain were raised near the "Kabila" local food stall, which was a source of vibrant flavors and community in Old Delhi. The siblings longed to recreate the magic of that cherished stall. This dream has now become a reality in Dubai with outlets located in Business Bay Downtown and Skycourts Towers. The tagline is "bringing people together around great food."

Kabila's menu is inspired by Mughlai royal kitchens as well as North Indian cooking. It features a variety of bold flavors, from slow-cooked biryanis and scrumptious tandoori plates to vibrant street food.
